

La Table des Amis de Provence invites you to join us for a Bloody Mary brunch

11h30 - 14h30

Sunday, 13 April 2025

Chez Carpita

Saint Rémy-de-Provence

The Bloody Mary drink which is basically a spiced up tomato juice and vodka cocktail was perhaps invented at Harry's Bar, Paris in 1920.

Another source attributes the cocktail to bartender Fernand Petiot who perfected his recipe for the Bloody Mary in 1934 at The St. Regis New York.

The name perhaps come from Queen Mary Tudor of England who persecuted her enemies in a very bloody fashion.

Regardless, we will be serving not only the classic Bloody Mary with vodka but also the Bloody Maria with tequila, to give it a different twist, so to speak.

We will also be serving Virgin Marys along with other non alcoholic libations.

The brunch will be highlighted by generous servings of Egyptian street food prepared by Nitokrees Tadrous Carpita of Cairo, Egypt

The brunch is 50€ for members, 60€ for non members, beverages included. Participation is limited to 12 persons.

Please book online for the brunch, first come first served at <https://www.latabledesamis.com/>.
