Birdwatching in the Colorado of Rustel

09h00 to 12h00

and

Wine tasting and lunch at Domaine les Davids

Viens

12h30 to 15h00

Learn to recognize birds during a beautiful walk in the stunning Ogres of Rustrel and enjoy this guided tour away from the trodden paths.

Our guide, Elsie Koelstra shares her enthusiasm for birds. An avid birdwatcher, she knows to recognize different birds and where to find them. With a touch of humour, she'll tell many funny stories about nature, the Colorado and birds in particular.

She will provide you with binoculars but if you have your own, bring them with you.

Walking will not be difficult but the Colorado can be slippery at certain points so please wear shoes or boots in which you feel comfortable. Bring a hat, your own drinking water and dress appropriate to the weather. No dogs.

If it rains, the birds don't sing...for that reason the bird walk will be cancelled. We'll keep you informed on weather conditions and reschedule or refund as appropriate. Limited to 10 persons.

The price for the bird watching event is 15€ per person for members and €20 for nonmembers payable by bank transfer or bank card on our website www.latabledesamis.com

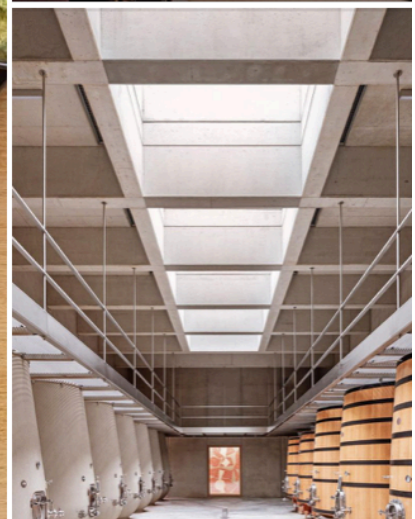

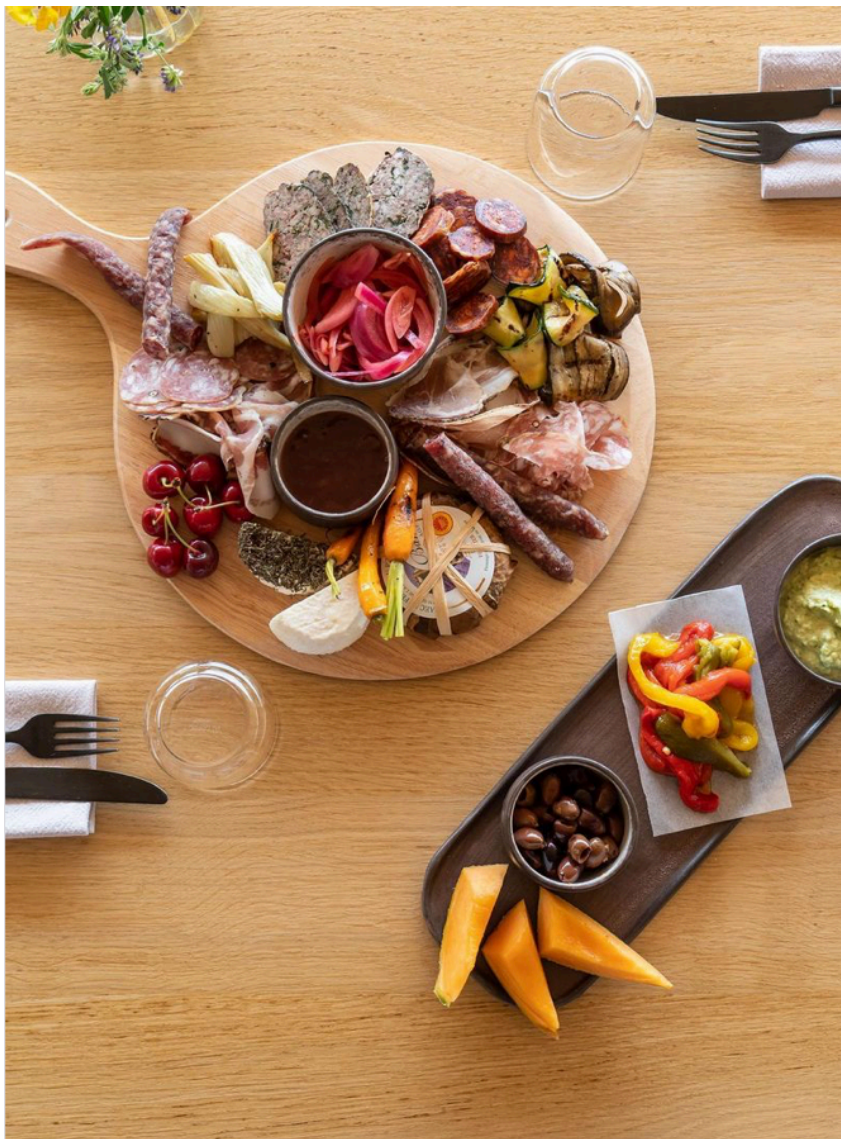

Domaine les Davids

Viens

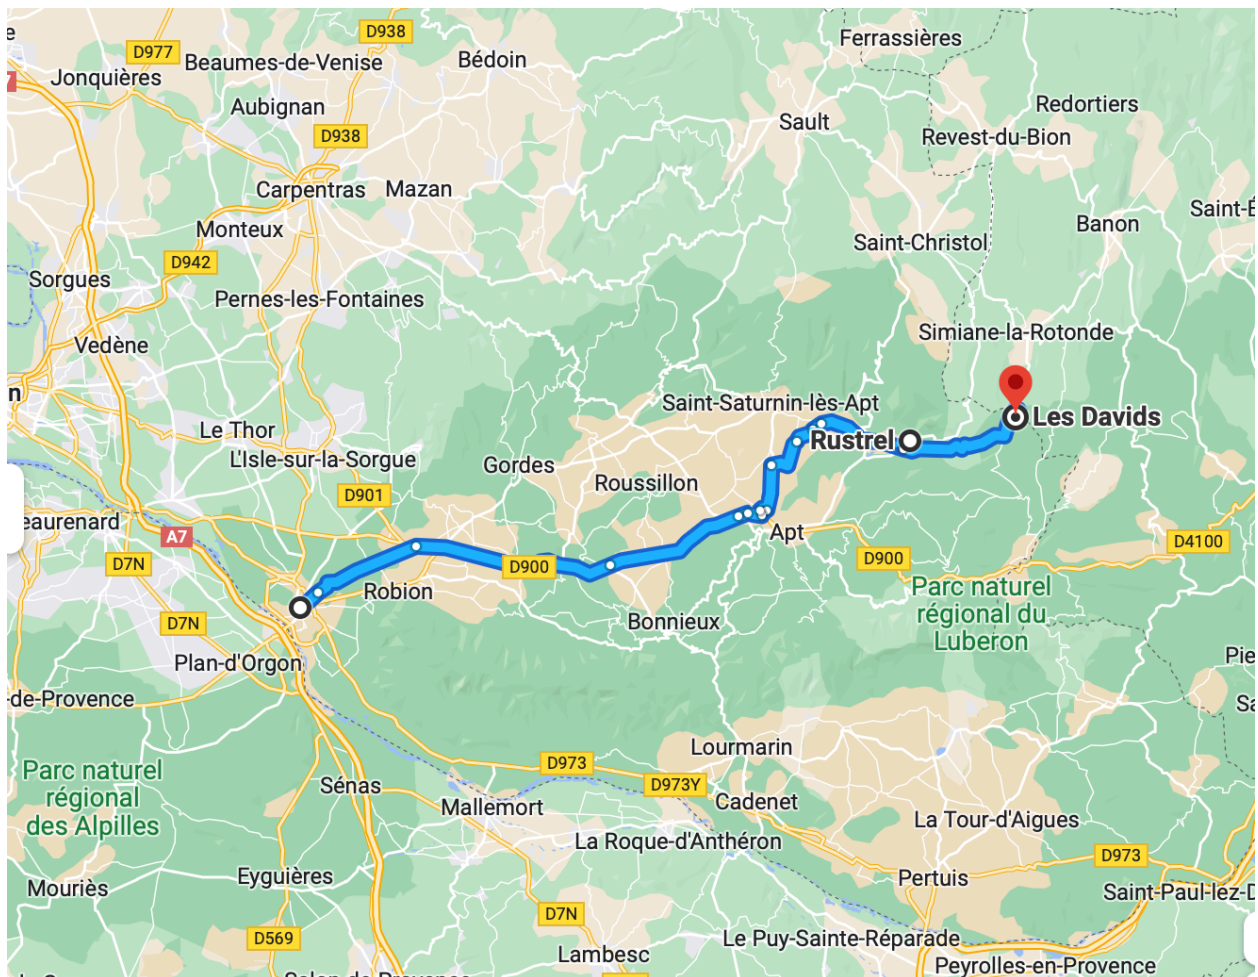

The second event of the day is a wine tasting and lunch a short drive away at an exceptional winery, which traces its roots back to the 14th century.

We will enjoy a tasting of their wines, a Provençal lunch on their terrace and a visit to their cellar.

The price for the lunch is €28, payable at the winery. We can have 20+ guests for this event so those who did not sign up early enough for the bird watching walk can join us at the Domaine les Davids.

Please RSVP promptly, latest by 16 May.

This event has been organized by La Table des Amis de Provence, a non-profit association that connects wine and food lovers to a table of friends.
