

La Table des Amis de Provence

invites you to join us for a

Coffee morning and Decent Espresso seminar with optional
lunch at Domitia Restaurant, Beaumettes

10h30 - 12h00

11 September 2023

La Table des Amis members Bugs Harpley and John Buckman will give a presentation on the art of making coffee with their fabulous espresso machine and accessories.

Their company, Decent Espresso is based in Hong Kong. Fortunately for us, they live a good part of the year in the Golden Triangle of the Luberon in the lovely village of Beaumettes.

Harriet (Bugs) Harpley

(founder/CEO) has an advanced degree in conservation management, a degree in astrophysics and previously worked in London for Frontier Economics, the largest UK-based economic consultancy.

John Buckman (founder/CTO) is a software programmer with a history of creating companies that cause some heck. He founded the fair trade music service Magnatune and the book-swapping service BookMooch. He is the former Chairman of the Electronic Frontier Foundation.

Croissants/pain au chocolate will be served from Nicoline Pâtissier who just won first prize for the best butter croissant in the Vaucluse for 2023. (https://www.facebook.com/glaciernicoline/?locale=fr_FR)

The coffee used will all be speciality and will be sourced from the most famous coffee roaster in the world, Scott Rao from his roastery in Boulder, CO USA (<https://getprodigal.com/>).

Domitia - Maison de Cuisinier is an up and coming restaurant with very good value. They have a 27€/35€ fixed price multi course lunch.
