L'Egypte des Pharaons

Carrières des Lumières

Les Baux-de-Provence

Carrières des Lumières is located in the historic village of Les Baux-de-Provence.

A former limestone quarry, the venue holds immersive digital exhibitions devoted to major artists using surround sound and light projections on the pure white walls, ceilings and floors.

The works of artists like Van Gogh, Vermeer, Monet, Klimt etc. are presented in the words of one reviewer as “A sensory overload. It is as though you are immersed in the paintings which come to life around you”.

This year’s exhibition featuring Egyptian pharaohs starts 19 April 2024 and runs to 5 January 2025.

We would like to share this experience with members of La Table des Amis de Provence, followed by a lunch of Egyptian dishes at the home of Nitokrees and David Carpita in Saint Rémy-de-Provence.

We will meet up at the Carrières de Lumières at 10h45. Tickets must be purchased in advance at starting at 13,50 € via this link:
