

La Table des Amis de Provence invites you to join us for a
Safari to Tuscany
01 - 08
November 2025

The Val d'Oca in Tuscany between Rome and Florence is an exceptional food and wine region. It is also a place steeped in history and traditions. Arguably some of the best wine, olive oil, saffron, and truffles come from the region. Fall is an excellent time to visit the region, the grapes are in, many of the tourists have left and they're bringing in the olives.

By our good luck, La Table des Amis de Provence members Brian and Janet Voss live part of the year in this valley. They have volunteered to organize a weeklong stay which gives us a chance to thoroughly explore this rich area of Italy. They will plan guided tours focusing on the historical significance of special towns, many special restaurants that they have personally enjoyed.

Our home base will be Monteleone d'Orvieto (as seen in the photo above). Hotels are all but nonexistent. We are reviewing available housing options and will coordinate with those who register early for this event.

This will be a "pay as you go" event, the only charge from La Table des Amis being a 25€ per person registration fee (30€ for nonmembers).

Group size will be limited to a maximum of 14 participants.

This event has been organized by La Table des Amis de Provence, a non-profit association that connects wine and food lovers to a table of friends.
