For 13 years, Mike was the hospitality manager for the prestigious Château de Beaucastel in Châteauneuf-de-Pape.

Both Barney and myself have spent many a pleasurable hour with Mike in the cellars and tasting room at Beaucastel.

Mike has a remarkable pedigree in hospitality and spends a good part of the year lecturing in hotel schools in Europe but keeps his home base in Avignon where he does wine tours in the Rhône Valley (<http://www.winesafari.net/en/index-11.html>) which receive rave reviews.

Mike will give about an hour presentation on the Rhône Valley, with questions and answers. Then we will taste 6 wines from different areas of this prestigious wine region.

The price for the seminar and tasting is €25 per person for members, €30 for non members. You may reserve and pay online at our website (www.latabledesamis.com).

The optional lunch will be at the restaurant of the Maison de la truffe et du vin following the wine tasting. Prices are moderate and credit cards are accepted. Let us know when you book if you wish to be included in the lunch.

This event has been organized by La Table des Amis de Provence, a non-profit association that connects wine and food lovers to a table of friends.

Membership fees: 15 € single, 25 € couples
