La Table des Amis member Joanna Staniszki is exhibiting a collection of her artwork from 4 September to 31 October at the Abbaye Saint-André.

This will be a morning visit reserved just for La Table members and their guests.

A student of fine arts in Warsaw then at the Chicago Academy of Arts, Joanna Staniszkis was a long-time professor in Canada, particularly in textile design and historical costumes.

Previously we enjoyed visiting her home/atelier in a former quarry in Taillades where she creates wearable art from silk.

Our program for the day will be:

10h15 meet at Abbaye Saint-André, 58 rue Monté du Fort, Villeneuve lez Avignon where we will be given a garden tour and history of this magnificent property acquired by Marie and Gustave Viennet.

11h30 presentation by Joanna of her works of art which marries silk, linen and hemp fabrics echoing ancestral Provençal knowledge.

12h30 lunch at Hortus café under the arches in the Abbaye garden with a view across the Rhône river of the Palais des Popes.
