

La Table des Amis de Provence invites you to join us for a

Presentation of La Vie en Soie followed by lunch at Auberge de Carrières, Taillades

10h00 - 14h00

05 December 2023

La Table des Amis member Joanna Staniszki will give a presentation of her silk based artwork in her atelier at her exceptionally interesting home at the base of a former quarry in Taillades.

Joanna was born in Poland. She studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw and graduated from the School of the Chicago Art Institute. She joined the faculty at the University of British Columbia where she taught textile design courses for over 3 decades.

Joanna has exhibited extensively on many continents. She specialized in large-scale tapestries that adorn the walls of major North American companies.

Joanna is now creating one of a kind wearable art, clothing which is unique, simple and elegant.

Our program for the day will be:

10h00 meet at Auberge de Carrières, Taillades (Parking du Stade, 2 minutes by foot).

10h15 Mr. Dominique Brault, a neighbor of Joanna will give us a walking tour of this unique site to include admission to a chapel.

11h00 Mr. Brault finishes the tour at Joanna's house where we will enjoy an apéro.

11h30 presentation by Joanna in her atelier.

12h30 lunch at Auberge de Carrières, menus 27€ and 36€ without beverages. Payment at the restaurant, credit cards accepted.

Cost for the apéro 15€ for members, 20€ for non-members.

Please book and pay online at by 2 December at www.latabledesamis.com. It is not obligatory to make a donation to HelloAsso.

For those who may wish to explore more of the village of Taillades on their own after the lunch:
