

La Table des Amis de Provence

Mince Pie Cooking

Demonstration and Afternoon Tea

Chez Lucy David

Saint Rémy-de-Provence

09 December 2022

15h00 - 17h30

This event will be a demonstration class in Lucy's home to learn how she makes her mince pies and will be followed by a convivial afternoon tea.

Why do we eat mince pies at Christmas?

They became a popular treat around the festive period thanks to a tradition from the middle ages, which saw people eat a mince pie for 12 days from Christmas day to Twelfth Night.

Doing this was believed to bring you happiness for the next 12 months

We can't guarantee you happiness but nobody does mince pies better than Lucy. We order at least a dozen every year and they are delicious.

This is a fund raising event for the Busoga Trust, a charity that constructs and rehabilitates wells, boreholes, latrines and washrooms in the Busoga Region of Uganda.

The price is €20 for members and €25 per person for non members.
